

Reunion 2018

June 7-10

Our first-ever reunion weekend

This summer we're coming together for our first newly expanded reunion weekend. We're inviting all Hokies to gather for a fun filled weekend this summer, instead of during individual reunion weekends during the fall.

We'll have class parties on the Drillfield, guided campus tours, college open houses, presentations from top faculty, children's activities, time to network and mingle, and much more.

Our reunion weekend is a new opportunity for Hokies to come together. We know the power of Hokie Nation. We're stronger together, whether it's cheering on our athletic teams, working alongside each other to solve big problems in the spirit of Ut Prosim, or starting a new tradition like this one.

Help build a new tradition

We need class volunteers for Reunion 2018. We need help with promoting the reunion. There are plenty of ways to help, from spreading the word to serving on a reunion planning committee.

Come together, give together

All gifts help all Hokies, present and future. It's living Ut Prosim. One gift becomes many when you give in honor of your class year and encourage others to do the same.
